HORUS 2014

19 candidates for HORUS 2014 – Slovene award for social responsibility

(Maribor, 4 November 2014) The call for HORUS 2014 - Slovene award for social responsibility was published in the first days of July 2014 by IRDO - Institute for the development of social responsibility and PRSS - Public relations society of Slovenia in cooperation with many supporting partners. The call attracted 20 applications before the 15 October 2014. 19 of them entered the assessment, while one institution withdrew its application before the deadline. Some applications had to be completed up; all of these applicants sent their documents in time before 23 October 2014. In the category 'enterprises' 12 applications arrived (four small, four midsized, two big and two social enterprises), in 'institutions' they are three. One application runs for the special recognition 'Entrepreneur with Slovene roots working abroad', two for the general special awards, and two for the special rewards for journalists. The prizewinners and receivers of the special recognitions are supposed to be known in the first half of December 2014. The HORUS award will be granted for the sixth time already, in 2014. The HORUS partners use the call to discover and award the legal entities' and individuals' requisitely holistic approaches to social responsibility. The Slovene HORUS Award for social responsibility was granted a national recognition for excellence in promotion of entrepreneurship in the category 'Responsible and open entrepreneurship' in June 2014 and then also in Napoli, Italy.
